OPPORTUNITY FOR VISUAL ARTISTS

Art Exhibitions at Columbia University

Columbia University’s Office of Government and Community Affairs offers arts exhibition spaces for artists residing in upper Manhattan. Exhibition spaces are available in the reception areas of the Russ Berrie Medical Science Pavilion at 1150 St. Nicholas Avenue @ 168th Street and the Lasker Biomedical Research building at 3960 Broadway @ 166th Street.

General Information

- 100% of artwork sale price goes to the artist
- Exhibits are displayed for approximately 6 weeks
- All artwork is installed by a professional art handler
- Artists must reside in Manhattan on or north of 96th Street
- Priority is given to emerging artists
- Exhibits are selected up to one year in advance
- Artists are responsible for the delivery and retrieval of artwork

The Gallery Space at Russ Berrie accommodates works that may be hung by wire and are more-or-less flat. No freestanding artwork permitted in the space.
Exhibition space dimensions: Wall #1 is 360” long; Wall #2 is 84” long.
Height of artwork should not exceed 84”.

The Gallery Space at the Lasker Building accommodates works that may be hung by wire and are more-or-less flat. No freestanding artwork permitted in the space.
Exhibition space dimensions: Wall #1 is 199” long; Wall #2 is 128” long; Wall #3 is 48” long.

Artist Applications

Application Deadline for winter and spring 2011 schedule: May 28, 2010

Only complete applications will be considered

APPLY ONLINE: http://webservices.lamp.columbia.edu/neighbors/neighbors.php

Applications must include the following

- Artist contact information (phone, e-mail, address, website)
- Artist statement
- Exhibition statement and description of proposed installation
- Resume including exhibition history
- 8-10 slides or photographs of recent artwork
- Image list including title, date, medium and dimensions

Applications may also be sent by postal mail or by e-mail
Community Arts Advisory Committee, C/O Orit Yakuel
Office of Government and Community Affairs, Columbia University
535 West 116th Street
Low Library, Room 302 (MC 4319)
New York, NY 10017
ColumbiaCommunityAffairs@gmail.com

For additional information, please contact Orit Yakuel in the Office of Government and Community Affairs at 212-854-1324, ColumbiaCommunityAffairs@gmail.com.